Our United Voice

Racial understanding is not found, it is created.

— Dr. M. L. King, Jr.

Activities

- ◆ Educational programs, including live teleconferences, guest speakers, and forums to inform the University about African-Americans.
- ◆ Increase cultural diversity on our campus by participating in the recruiting efforts of African-American students, faculty, and staff.
- ◆ Offer support in matters regarding racism and discrimination.
- ◆ Mentoring minority youths in the Missoula community.
- ◆ Social events like potlucks, barbecues, pizza parties, etc.

Membership

- ◆ We are African-American, Native-American, Hispanic, White, and Asian-American. We also represent Africa, Canada, Central America, Europe and Asia.
- ◆ Anyone who is open to diversity and is willing to fight the plague of racism and discrimination is welcome.
- ◆ We are affiliated with PHI BETA SIGMA, The University of Montana's first Black Greek Letter Fraternity.

The Black Student Union at The University of Montana represents our best effort to promote positive race relations and establish cultural diversity on this campus and in the Missoula community. We find it necessary to educate others about prominent contributions made in the past and present by African-Americans to strengthen racial equality and harmony for all humanity.
